H. B. Gisevius, Esq.,
Commugny sur Coppet,
Vaud, Switzerland.

Dear HBG:

Many thanks for your recent telegram. I am glad to hear that the written Goedeler approval is coming along.

Mary tells me that her "silence" is not due to any terrorizing tactics but merely to an existence of activity. I gather from her that she has already written at some length and you can be sure that I exercised my influence in this direction.

Last Thursday I went to Washington and visited the Visa Section and made an impassionate appeal on your behalf. They have agreed to review the case again and would let me know what they can do.

Mary has shown me the English edition of your book and I am looking forward to its appearance and shall do anything I can to augment its sale in this country.

Sincerely,

Allen W. Dulles.
